Hymns of Worship and Service

For the Sunday School

New York
The Century Co.

IN addition to the tunes which have been copyrighted separately, this volume contains many arrangements which are covered by the general copyright of the book and must not be used without special permission.

Publishers' Note

THIS book has been prepared solely to meet the needs of the Sunday-school, but when the music of the Sunday-school and that of other religious services will coincide, it may be used elsewhere. The book is based upon the recognition of worship as a vital element in religious education, of music as a means of self-expression which is a fundamental principle in education, and upon the conviction that only that which is worthy to endure in music and hymnology is fitted to be the medium of expression of the faith, the love, the purpose and the experiences of the unfolding life of childhood and youth. Special care has been taken in the selection and arrangement of the hymns. Except in the case of a few standard hymns which are universally sung and into the thought of which many grow early in life, hymns or stanzas which express only the adult experience have been omitted, as also have hymns which refer to occasions outside the sphere of Sunday-school services. Based upon the vision and the experiences of youth, the book will be found rich in hymns of praise, hymns of the spiritual awakening and the developing life, hymns of service for others, and hymns of the heroic life in its twofold aspect of resistance and struggle for righteousness.

A new feature of this book, and one which will commend it to many Sunday-schools, is the section devoted to Selections for the Sunday-School Choir.

The element of worship has been recognized, and to this end a section has been added containing music and scripture arranged for liturgical use, a general order for Sunday-school worship, and several services topically arranged for special occasions.

The thanks of the publishers are due to the following persons who have assisted in the preparation of this book: the Rev. Milton S. Littlefield, Frank E. A. Stoney, M. D., H. Augustine Smith, the Rev. Frank S. Hunnewell and Alexander S. Gibson.

THE LORD'S DAY

5 So be it, Lord, for ever.
 Oh, may we evermore,
 In Jesus' holy presence
 His blessed name adore.
 Upon His peaceful Sabbath,
 Within His temple-walls—
 Type of the stainless worship
 In Zion's golden halls.

6 So that, in joy and gladness,
 We reach that home at last,
 When life's short week of sorrow
 And sin and strife is past;
 When angel-hands have gathered
 The fair, ripe fruit for Thee,
 O Father, Lord, Redeemer,
 Most Holy Trinity.

"HYMN TO JOY"

HENRY BATEMAN, 1862

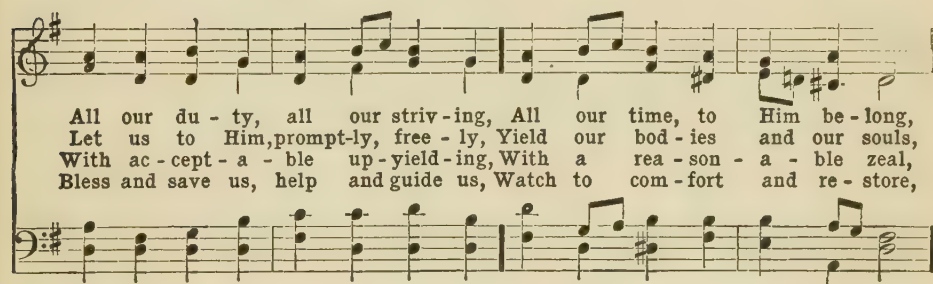

From BEETHOVEN, (1770-1827)

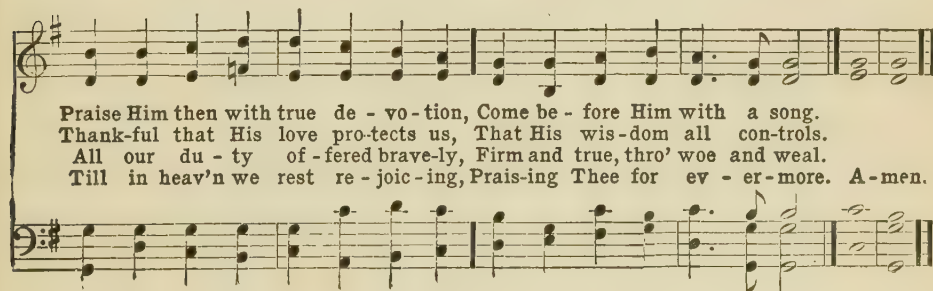

1. Let us, broth-ers, let us glad-ly Give to God of all, our best;
 2. By His mer-cy, by His boun-ty, By the gift of Christ His Son,
 3. What so hap-py, what so bless-ed, As that all we have and are,
 4. Gra-cious Lord, ac-cept our ser-vice For the sake of Christ Thy Son;

Ser-vice heart-y, thor-ough, hon-est, With a liv-ing love im-prest;
 What great good-ness He hath shown us, What high mar-vels He hath done;
 Should be to Him-self pre-sent-ed, With re-li-ance on His care;
 Lo, our hope a-bid-eth on-ly On the tra-vail He hath done;

All our du-ty, all our striv-ing, All our time, to Him be-long,
 Let us to Him, prompt-ly, free-ly, Yield our bod-ies and our souls,
 With ac-cept-a-ble up-yeild-ing, With a rea-son-a-ble zeal,
 Bless and save us, help and guide us, Watch to com-fort and re-store,

Praise Him then with true de-vo-tion, Come be-fore Him with a song.
 Thank-ful that His love pro-TECTS us, That His wis-dom all con-trols.
 All our du-ty of-fered brave-ly, Firm and true, thro' woe and weal.
 Till in heav'n we rest re-joic-ing, Prais-ing Thee for ev-er-more. A-men.

Yes, God is good; in earth and sky

30

JOHN H. GURNEY, 1851

"CANONBURY"

Arr. fr. R. SCHUMANN, 1839

1. Yes, God is good; in earth and sky, From o - cean depths and spreading wood,
 2. The sun that keeps his track-less way And downward pours his gold-en flood,
 3. The mer - ry birds pro - long the strain, Their song with ev - 'ry spring re - newed;

Ten thousand voi-ces seem to cry, "God made us all, and God is good."
 Night's sparkling hosts, all seem to say, In ac-cents clear, that God is good.
 And balm-y air, and fall - ing rain, Each soft-ly whispers, "God is good." A-men.

4 Yes, God is good, all nature says,
 By God's own hand with speech endued;
 And man, in louder notes of praise,
 Should sing for joy that God is good. 27

5 For all Thy gifts we bless Thee, Lord;
 But chiefly for our heavenly food;
 Thy pard'ning grace, Thy quick'ning word,—
 These prompt our song that God is good.

HIS BIRTH AND CHILDHOOD

3 How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given;
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

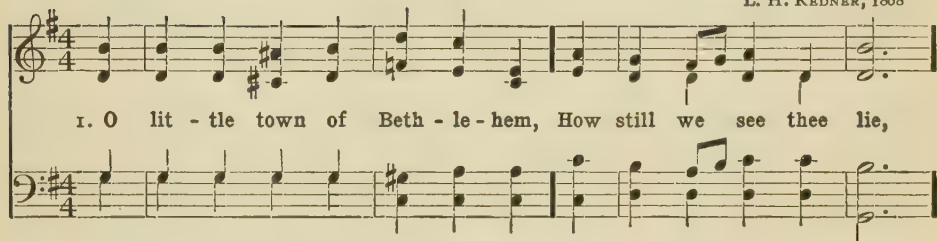

4 O holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray,
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us to-day.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel.

Glo-ry to God on high. Yet wakes the sun as joy-ous As when the Lord was born,
As in the days of old. In each young heart you see Him, In ev-'ry guile-less face,
It smiles on ev-'ry one. And feast Christ's lit-tle children, His poor, His or-phan call;

As with gladness men of old

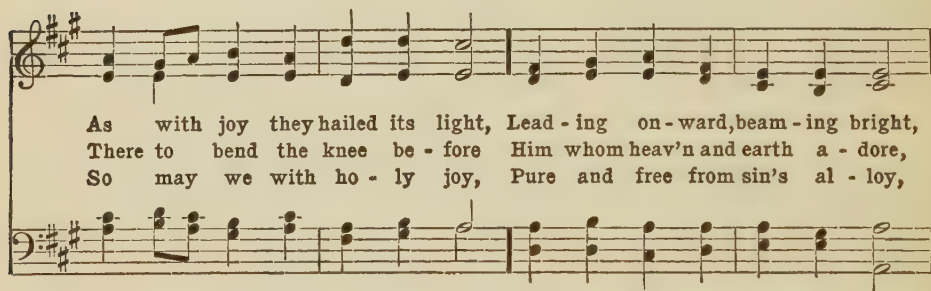

"DIX"

W. C. DIX, 1856

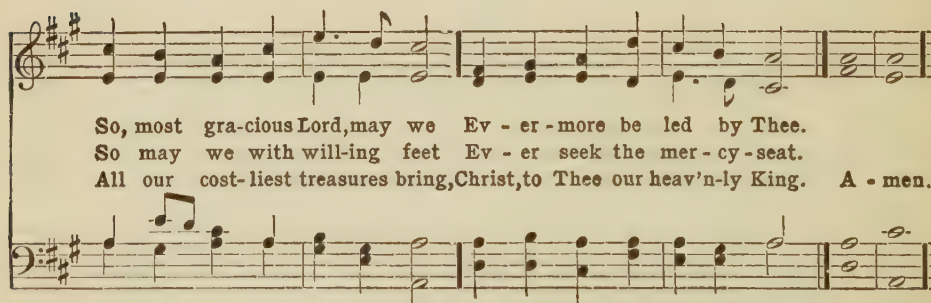

Arr. fr. C. KÖCHER, (1786-1872)

1. As with glad-ness men of old Did the guid-ing star be-hold,
 2. As with joy-ful steps they sped To that low-ly man-ger-bed,
 3. As they of-fered gifts most rare At that man-ger rude and bare,

As with joy they hailed its light, Lead-ing on-ward, beam-ing bright,
 There to bend the knee be-fore Him whom heav'n and earth a-dore,
 So may we with ho-ly joy, Pure and free from sin's al-loy,

So, most gra-cious Lord, may we Ev-er-more be led by Thee.
 So may we with will-ing feet Ev-er seek the mer-cy-seat.
 All our cost-liest treasures bring, Christ, to Thee our heav'n-ly King. A-men.

4 Holy Jesus, every day
 Keep us in the narrow way;
 And, when earthly things are past,
 Bring our ransomed souls at last
 Where they need no star to guide,
 Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

5 In the heavenly country bright,
 Need they no created light;
 Thou its light, its joy, its crown,
 Thou its Sun which goes not down;
 There for ever may we sing
 Alleluias to our King.

Thine arm, O Lord, in days of old

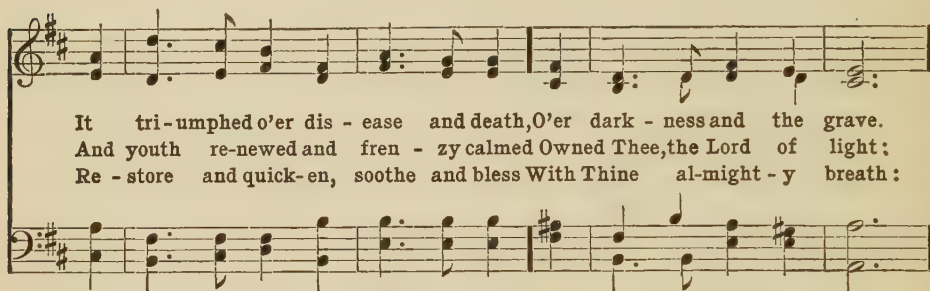

"DELIVERANCE"

EDWARD H. PLUMPTRE, 1864

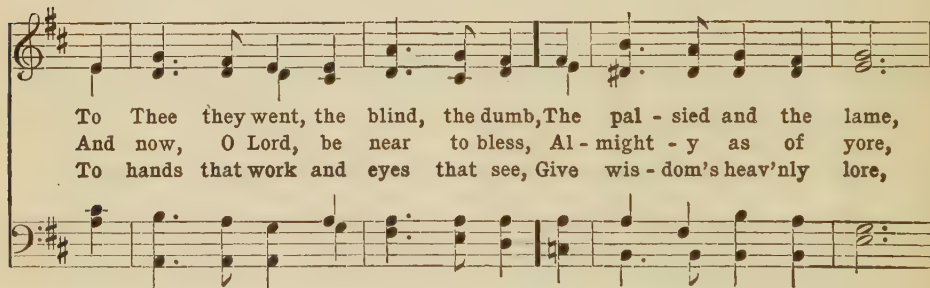

JOSEPH BARNEY, 1867

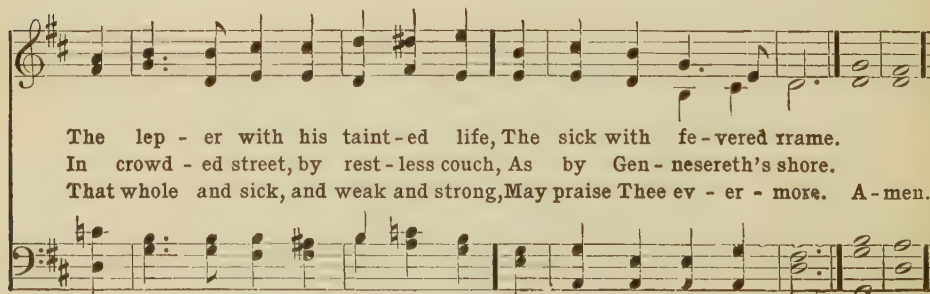

1. Thine arm, O Lord, in days of old Was strong to heal and save;
 2. And lo, Thy touch bro't life and health, Gave speech, and strength, and sight;
 3. Be Thou our great De - liv - 'rer still, Thou Lord of life and death;

It tri-umphed o'er dis - ease and death, O'er dark - ness and the grave.
 And youth re-newed and fren - zy calmed Owned Thee, the Lord of light:
 Re - store and quick-en, soothe and bless With Thine al-might - y breath:

To Thee they went, the blind, the dumb, The pal - sied and the lame,
 And now, O Lord, be near to bless, Al - might - y as of yore,
 To hands that work and eyes that see, Give wis - dom's heav'nly lore,

The lep - er with his taint-ed life, The sick with fe-vered frame.
 In crowd - ed street, by rest-less couch, As by Gen - nesareth's shore.

 In the very heart of grief,
 And in trial, love;
 In our meekness to be wise,
 And through sorrow to arise

 All the sinful to inspire
 With the Father's life;
 Free us from the cares that press
 On the heart of worldliness,
 From the fret and strife.

C. F. ALEXANDER, 1848

"MEDITATION"

Dr. JOHN H. GOWER, (1855-)

1. There is a green hill far a-way, Out-side a ci-ty wall,
 2. We may not know, we can-not tell, What pains He had to bear;
 3. He died that we might be for-giv'n, He died to make us good,
 4. There was no oth-er good e-nough To pay the price of sin;
 5. Oh, dear-ly, dear-ly has He loved, And we must love Him too,

Where the dear Lord was cru-ci-fied, Who died to save us all.
 But we be-lieve it was for us He hung and suf-fered there.
 That we might go at last to heav'n, Saved by His pre-cious blood.
 He on-ly could un-lock the gate Of heav'n, and let us in.
 And trust in His re-deem-ing blood, And try His works to do. A-men.

ALEX. S. GIBSON, 1908

Raise your joys and tri-umphs high; Sing, ye heav'ns, and earth re-ply.
 Death in vain for-bids Him rise, Christ has o-pened par-a-dise.
 Made like Him, like Him we rise; Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

Love's re-deem-ing work is done, Fought the fight, the vic-t'ry won;
 Live a-gain our glo-rious King: Where, O death, is now thy sting?
 King of glo-ry, Soul of bliss, Ev-er-last-ing life is this,

Je-sus' ag-o-ny is o'er; Dark-ness veils the earth no more.
 Once He died our souls to save: Where thy vic-to-ry, O grave?
 Thee to know, Thy pow'r to prove, Thus to sing, and thus to love. A-men.

A. S. SULLIVAN, (1842-1900)

1. I've found a Friend; Oh, such a Friend! He loved me ere I knew Him;
 2. I've found a Friend; Oh, such a Friend! He bled, He died to save me;
 3. I've found a Friend; Oh, such a Friend! So kind, and true, and ten-der,

He drew me with the cords of love, And thus He bound me to Him:
 And not a - lone the gift of life, But His own self He gave me.
 So wise a coun - sel - lor and Guide, So might-y a De - fend-er.

And round my heart still close - ly twine Those ties which nought can sev - er,
 Nought that I have my own I call, I hold it for the Giv - er:

 Love with ev-'ry pas-sion blend-ing, Pleas-ure that can nev-er cloy:

"JUST AS I AM"

J. BARNEY, 1893

1. Just as I am, with-out one plea, But that Thy blood was shed for me,
 2. Just as I am, and wait-ing not To rid my soul of one dark blot,
 3. Just as I am, though tossed a-bout With many a con-flict, many a doubt,
 4. Just as I am, poor, wretch-ed, blind, Sight, rich-es, heal-ing of the mind,

And that Thou bid'st me come to Thee, O Lamb of God, I come.
 To Thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot, O Lamb of God, I come.
 Fight-ings and fears with-in, with-out, O Lamb of God, I come.
 Yea, all I need, in Thee to find, O Lamb of God, I come. A-men.

5 Just as I am, Thou wilt receive,
 Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;

 Now to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
 O Lamb of God, I come.

Anon.

" LOVING FRIEND "

J. R. FAIRLAMB, 1887

1. I ought to love my Sav-iour; No earth-ly friend can be
 2. He left His home in glo-ry To save my soul from death;
 3. It is but ver-y lit-tle For Him that I can do;
 4. And when I reach the man-sion He has pre-pared for me,

So lov-ing, kind, and faith-ful As He hath been to me.
 And now in all life's dan-gers He still sus-tains my breath.
 Then let me seek to serve Him My earth-ly jour-ney through;
 'Twill be my grate-ful pleas-ure My Sav-iour's face to see;

Be-fore my lips could ut-ter His sweet and pre-cious name,
 I lay me down and slum-ber All through the hours of night,
 And with-out sigh or mur-mur, To do His ho-ly will,
 And 'mid the an-gels' mu-sic, Which then will greet my ear,

Un-til the pres-ent mo-ment, His love hath been the same.
 And wake a-gain in safe-ty To hail the morn-ing light.
 And in my dai-ly du-ties, His wise com-mands ful-fill.
 How ea-ger-ly I'll list-en My Sav-iour's voice to hear. A-men.

I was a wandering sheep

H. BONAR, 1844

"LEBANON"

J. ZUNDEL, 1855

1. I was a wan-d'ring sheep, I did not love the fold;
 2. The Shep-herd sought His sheep, The Fa-ther sought His child,
 3. Je-sus my Shep-herd is, . . 'Twas He that loved my soul,

I did not love my Shepherd's voice, I would not be con-trolled.
 They fol-lowed me o'er vale and hill, O'er des-erts waste and wild:
 'Twas He that washed me in His blood, 'Twas He that made me whole;

I was a way-ward child, I did not love my home;
 They found me nigh to death, Fam-ished and faint, and lone;
 'Twas He that sought the lost, That found the wan-d'ring sheep,

I did not love my Fa-ther's voice; I loved a-far to roam.
 They bound me with the bands of love; They saved the wan-d'ring one.
 'Twas He that brought me to the fold, 'Tis He that still doth keep. A-men.

THE RESPONSE

But now I love the Shepherd's voice,

I was a wayward child,
I once preferred to roam;
But now I love my Father's voice,
I love, I love His home.

 3. Thy Fa - ther's home of light, Thy rain - bow - cir - cled throne, Yea, all was left for me; Have I left aught for Thee? A-men.

4 And Thou hast brought to me,
 Down from Thy home above,

 My years for Thee be spent,
 World-fetters all be riven,
 And joy with suffering blent,
 Thou gavest Thyself for me;
 I give myself to Thee.

2. Forward, when in child-hood Buds the in-fant mind; All thro' youth and man-hood,

Not a look be-hind. Burns the fi-ery pil-lar At our ar-my's head;
Not a thought be-hind. Speed thro' realms of na-ture, Climb the steps of grace;
One day to be shar'd. Eye hath not be-held them, Ear hath nev-er heard;

Who shall dream of shrink-ing, By our Cap-tain led? For-ward thro' the des-ert, Faint not, till in glo-ry Gleams our Fa-ther's face. For-ward, all the life-time,
Nor of these have ut-ter'd Thought or speech a word. For-ward, marching east-ward Thro' the toil and fight! Jor-dan flows be-fore us; Zi-on beams with light.

Climb from height to height, Till the head be hoar-y, Till the eve be light.
Where the heav'n is bright, Till the veil be lift-ed, Till our faith be sight. A-men.

 Who saw his Mas-ter in the sky, And called on Him to save;
 Twelve val-iant saints, their hope they knew And mocked the torch of flame;
 A-round the throne of God re-joice, In robes of light ar-rayed.

Who best can drink his cup of woe, Tri-umph-ant o-ver pain,
 Like Him, with par-don on His tongue, In midst of mor-tal pain,
 They met the ty-rant's brand-ish'd steel, The li-on's go-ry mane,
 They climb'd the steep as-cent of heav'n Thro' per-il, toil, and pain,

Who pa-tient bears his cross be-low, He fol-lows in His train.
 He pray'd for them that did the wrong; Who fol-lows in his train?
 They bow'd their necks the stroke to feel; Who fol-lows in their train?
 O God, to us may grace be giv'n To fol-low in their train. A-men.

 Teach me the wayward feet to stay, And guide them in the homeward way.
 In work that keeps faith sweet and strong, In trust that triumphs o-ver wrong,
 In peace that on-ly Thou canst give, With Thee, O Mas-ter, let me live. A-men.

Come, ye thankful people, come

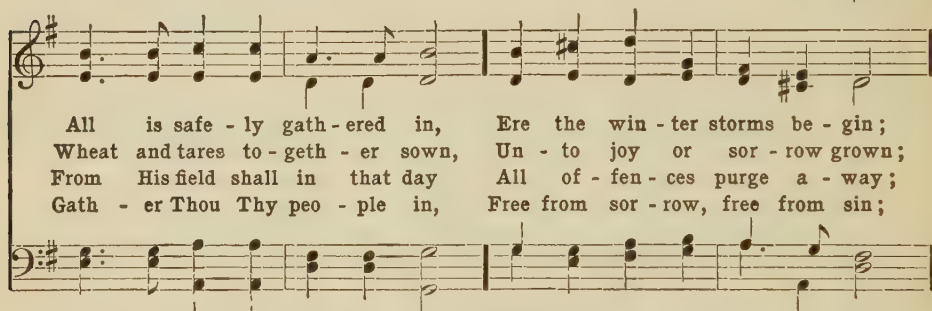

H. ALFORD, 1845

"ST. GEORGE'S, WINDSOR"

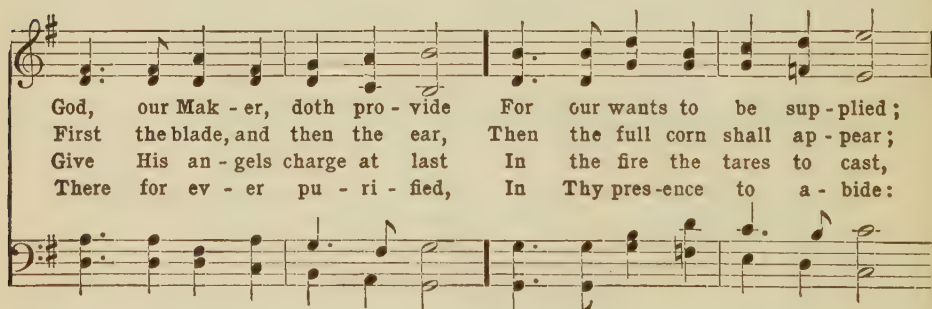

G. J. ELVEY, 1853

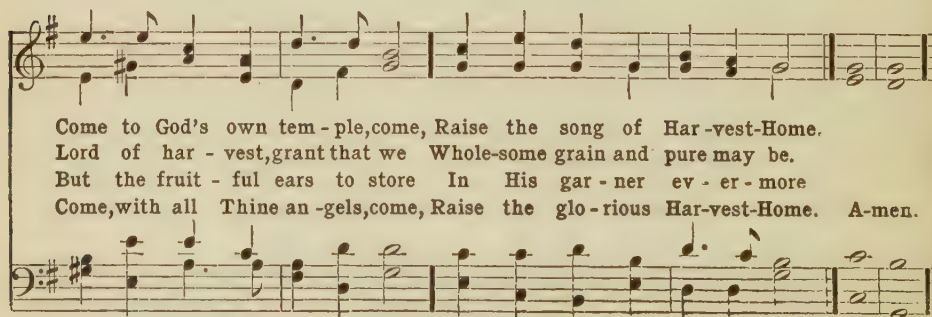

1. Come, ye thank-ful peo-ple, come, Raise the song of Har-vest-Home;
 2. All the world is God's own field, Fruit un-to His praise to yield;
 3. For the Lord our God shall come, And shall take His har-vest home;
 4. E-ven so, Lord, quick-ly come, To Thy fi-nal Har-vest-Home;

All is safe-ly gath-ered in, Ere the win-ter storms be-gin;
 Wheat and tares to-geth-er sown, Un-to joy or sor-row grown;
 From His field shall in that day All of-fen-ces purge a-way;
 Gath-er Thou Thy peo-ple in, Free from sor-row, free from sin;

God, our Mak-er, doth pro-vide For our wants to be sup-plied;
 First the blade, and then the ear, Then the full corn shall ap-pear;
 Give His an-gels charge at last In the fire the tares to cast,
 There for ev-er pu-ri-fied, In Thy pres-ence to a-bide:

Come to God's own tem-ple, come, Raise the song of Har-vest-Home.

The Ten Commandments

GOD spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage

I. — Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II. — Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth : thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them : for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me ; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III. — Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain ; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV. — Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work : but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God ; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates ; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day : wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

V. — Honor thy father and thy mother : that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI. — Thou shalt not kill.

VII. — Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII. — Thou shalt not steal.

IX. — Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X. — Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus Christ saith : Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it : Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The Apostles' Creed

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth :

And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord ; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost ; born of the Virgin Mary ; suffered under Pontius Pilate ; was crucified, dead, and buried ; He descended into hell ; the third day He rose again from the dead ; He ascended into heaven ; and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty ; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost ; the Holy Catholic Church ; the Communion of Saints ; the Forgiveness of sins ; the Resurrection of the body ; and the Life everlasting. Amen.

The Beatitudes

Leader — Blessed are the poor in spirit :

School — For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn :

For they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek :

For they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness :

For they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful :

For they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart :

For they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers :

For they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake :

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad : for great is your reward in heaven : for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

The Shepherd Psalm

Leader — The Lord is my shepherd :

School — I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures :

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul :

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil :

For Thou art with me ; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies :

Thou anointest my head with oil ; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life :

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A General Confession

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father; We have erred, and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

O GOD, who hast prepared for those who love thee such good things as pass man's understanding; Pour into our hearts such love toward thee, that we, loving thee above all things, may obtain thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, the strength of all those who put their trust in thee; Mercifully accept our prayers: and because through the weakness of our mortal nature, we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy grace, that in keeping thy commandments we may please thee, both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright; Grant to us such strength and protection, as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A General Thanksgiving

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

A Collect for Peace

O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

A Collect for Grace

O LORD, our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; Defend us in the same with thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings, being ordered by thy governance, may be righteous in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GRANT to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Doing the Will of God

Leader — The law of the Lord is perfect,
restoring the soul:

School — The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

The precepts of the Lord are right rejoicing the heart:

The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

Moreover by them is thy servant
warned:

In keeping them there is great reward.

To obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams.

Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

Little children, let us not love in word,
neither with the tongue; but in deed and truth.

Teach me to do thy will;

For thou art my God:

Thy Spirit is good;

Lead me in the paths of uprightness.

Owe no man anything, save to love one another; for he that loveth his

The Reward of Obedience

School — He that keepeth the commandments

He that doeth the will of God abideth

Every one therefore that heareth
these words of mine, and doeth man, who built his house upon the

the floods came, and the wind blew, and beat upon that house; and it

Be thou faithful unto death and I

Lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, behold your God.

Behold, the Lord God will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him. Behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

Leader — As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all the places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

School — He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arms, and carry them in his bosom.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

Other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also must I bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.

When he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice.

God's Care for All

Leader — Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

School — Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

(For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

The Pilgrimage through

In the day-time also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.

He rained down manna upon them to eat, and gave them food from heaven. He rained flesh upon them as the dust, and winged birds as the sand of the sea.

How oft did they rebel against him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert.

But he led them safely so that they were not afraid; he brought them unto his holy border, to this mountain land, which his right hand had gotten.

Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;

School — For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness: and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

At the beginning of the twentieth century there are "nearly 6,000 principal mission stations where missionaries now reside, and over 22,000 out-stations. Maps of all parts of the world are required to represent the location of these stations. At these centers, and from them as bases, over 16,000 missionaries are working and directing a campaign, the influences of which penetrate the heart of the great masses of the non-Christian peoples. About 1,500,000 are now gathered into the Christian churches." — (John R. Mott.)

"The great need of missions in this age is a revival, in the hearts of the Church, of that large and noble passion which may be called the patriotism of Christ's kingdom. This will draw the most generous and heroic minds into an adventure which promises the most splendid success within the range of human expectation." — (Henry van Dyke.)

Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord:

He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;

He hath loosed the fateful lightning of his terrible swift sword.

His truth is marching on.

CHORUS — Glory, glory hallelujah.

Words of Benjamin Franklin

The School — I have lived, sir, a long time; and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth, — that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without his notice, is it possible that an empire can rise without his aid? We have been assured, sir, in the sacred writings that — "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it." I firmly believe this.

Singing

I have seen him in the watch-fires of

While God is marching on. — CHORUS:

Lincoln's Speech at Gettysburg

Leader — Fourscore and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

School — Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure.

We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live.

It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense; we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground.

The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract.

The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here.

It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced.

It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us: that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion:

All — That we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom;
and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.
